

Linda C. Wallis
Assistant Inspector General For Support

Linda Wallis assumed the position of Assistant Inspector General for Support in February 2003. Since February 25, 2002, Linda Wallis has served as the Contracting Officer for the Office of Inspector General at the Corporation for National and Community Service.

Prior to assuming her OIG duties at the Corporation, Ms. Wallis was the Acting Director of Contracting at the US Army Intelligence and Security Command (USAINSCOM), Fort Belvoir, Virginia from October 4, 2001 to February 24, 2002. She served as a Contract Specialist and Contracting Officer/Team Leader at USAINSCOM since July 1992. Her duties included responsibility for cradle-to-grave intelligence-mission support contracts.

Ms. Wallis was born in Ada, Oklahoma and is now a resident of Virginia. She obtained her Bachelor's degree in Acquisition and Contracts Management from George Mason University, Fairfax, VA. She holds a Certificate in Acquisition and Contracts Management from the University of Virginia, Northern Virginia Center, Falls Church, VA, and is a graduate of the US Army Management and Staff College, Fort Belvoir, VA. She has been certified at DOD Acquisition Professional Level III.

Ms. Wallis' past duty assignments have included support to the US Marine Corps, Okinawa, Japan; the Directorate of Contracting, Fort Meade, MD; the US Army Troop Support Agency, Northeast Commissary Region, Fort Meade, MD; the US Army Medical Command, 34th General Hospital, Augsburg, Germany; the US Naval Resale Activity, Pensacola, FL; and the US Army Information Systems Selection and Acquisition Agency, Alexandria, VA.